Kahaniyaan hi Kahaniyaan
A week long story campaign from Pratham

Starting on Children’s Day in November 2021, Pratham and StoryWeaver ran a week-long campaign called Kahaniyaan hi Kahaniyaan (Stories and Stories). Pratham teams in 20 states worked with local volunteers, mothers, and community members to share one story a day and do a variety of activities based on the story. Children performed the story, they made puppets, drawings and retold stories to each other.

A story and an activity based on the story was sent out each day that week via WhatsApp, SMS and Pratham and StoryWeaver’s online channels. Communities, families and children shared photos, audio clips and videos of their activity of the day.

In this package we have put together the story of the day, the activity and a short video that captures the fun that children had. You can do this too with your children, your friends and your network.

English and Hindi versions of the story and message are included here. But we can share versions in Punjabi, Assamese, Odia, Bangla, Marathi, Gujarati, Telugu and Kannada. Reach out to us for more information: info@pratham.org
